Mailing Label Rental Order Form

The Association of Professional Researchers for Advancement (APRA) is an international organization for individuals interested in the field of development research. The APRA membership list is an excellent way for your organization to promote its services and products.

To order the list, please return this form to APRA with a sample of the mailing. Upon approval, the order will be processed within seven business days. APRA reserves the right to deny the rental of the mailing list. The cost for each list is shown below. Payment must be received with your order. The complete mailing list includes approximately 1350 APRA members.
